way • Bloomington, IL 61701 • Ph. 309/663-4311

L FREE 800-322-7613

Rossville enjoys presence of past I no Stranger

FARM-BUSINESS C-1

Open leader

The News-Gazette

Probe reveals Defense leaks

Ul prof's weather theory predicted current drought

Weather

Sunny, hot;

high in 90s

Features Home and gard

Speculation on effect of drought on farm prices. C-1.

News-Gazette protoby Pelin K. Johnson
Cynthia Dunn and her daughter Lolesha, 2, stand at the door of their apartment in Burch Village. Dunn has six children.

Prison escapee shoots Turkish premier in hand

North End plagued by drug,

But others suggest Culpepper lives in the area because of her booming business — dealing drugs.

But others suggest Culpepper in the properties of the properties o temptyment in the release and the state of t From January to April 25 of this year, 1 more drug cases were reported there.

most meet."

BRUG BEALING Is a "incretive" business, source and and it's also a business that doesn't appear to be fading in northeast champaign.

The neighborhood — or the North End est is more commonly known — is nearly all black it generally includes the area west of wright Street, north of University Avenue, east of the Illinois Central Railroad tracks and south of Interstate 7A.

Last year, Champaign police reported 5 cents of which the providence of the policy of the providence of the pr

Republicans treat Bush to show of unity

By GLEW MATHISON.

SPRINGFIELD — Versognet George Book reeled in the glow of Illinon Republican unity Servidid the glow of Illinon Republican unity Serviliable said he will win the Presidency with Republican unity. Convention organizers made sure he poil it, with calls for harmony in speeches and during the group to put saids or side of privat in the pring the group to put saids or given in the pring the group to put saids or privat in the pring the group to put saids or privat in the pring the group to put saids or privat intense.

The drive for unity extended even to placards
The leader of an antitux campian, Oua Chies activist Dan Seati, was escorted away by securiguards when he tried to distribute protest signs.

A few of the signs — which read Than the Bosh for saying No to Taxes the floor univernor—made it to the convention floor univerfor—made it to the convention floor univercompaign."

In his half-hour speech, Bush accused probable Democratic nominee Michael Dukakus of being week on crime and insincere about combating the illegal drug trade.

BUSH SAID THE CONTEST with Dukakis, the governor of Massachusetts, offers a choice of "wo fundamentally different visions."

A clear example of that difference, Bush said, will be in their visions of a war on drugs.
"Lately our opponents have adopted some getting heather on drugs," Bush said, "They're still short on substance."
It is not to be a considerance, the vice president and added, promising tougher penalties for drug pushers and capital punishment for drug dealers convicted of murch of the president provided of promising the provided of providers.

ers and capital punishment for drug dealers con-victed of murder. However, Bush saved his fiercest attack for a However, Bush saved his fiercest attack for a Dukakis policy that the vice president claims al lowed convicted murderers in Massachisents out of We have a flight to know wy Michael Dukekis thinks first-degree murderers should be fun-loughted." Bush said. "I think that Gov. Dukakis owes the people of America an explanation." On hand with Bush were It. Med. Secretary of Slate Jim Biger. Home Minority, Plan-der Lee Danlels, Senate Minority Leader James

Summit split brews over ag subsidies

TORONTO (AP) — World leaders went out of their way to stress international cooperation Saturday on the eve of the seven-hardon economic summit, but a contentions fight over agricultural summit, but a contentions fight over agricultural summit, but a contentions fight over agricultural summit, but a contention sight over agricultural summit, but a contention sight over agricultural summit, but a contention sight over agricultural summit and candon and a contention sight over agricultural summit summit and candon — was being held under the tightest security force (Grannetter Security force Convention Centrollar over a contention con

large is among three public housing projects in corth Chair. a fixed focome — in the by the Housing Authority of Champaign County, More than residents, don't live

North End Tine North End

The News-Gazette

INFORMATION HOME DELIVERY ADVERTISIN

SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT

IN TOMORROW S NEWS GAZETTE

100 Tab. 1

關 IN KIDZETTE, youth's computer speaks his language. IN SPORTS, coverage of the final round of the U.S. Open.